

WILLIAM JEFFERSON CLINTON

May 15, 2006

His Excellency Ricardo Lagos
Former President of Chile
1732 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. President,

I am pleased to invite you to the second annual meeting of the Clinton Global Initiative, which will take place September 20-22, 2006, in New York City. This past year's inaugural meeting inspired nearly 400 participants to commit to take action to alleviate poverty, combat climate change, improve governance, and use religion as a force for reconciliation--with pledges valued at approximately $2 billion--and produced a number of exciting and innovative partnerships.

This year, our attendees include Queen Rania Al-Abdullah, President Jacques Chirac, President Viktor A. Yushchenko, Prime Minister Tony Blair, UN Secretary General Kofi Annan, First Lady Laura Bush, Chancellor Gordon Brown, Sir Richard Branson, Warren Buffett, Hernando de Soto, Bill Gates, Lakshmi Mittal, Rupert Murdoch, Ratan Tata, Muhammad Yunus, and an array of other distinguished and dedicated leaders.

Consistent with the first gathering, discussions will be nonpartisan, pragmatic, and results-oriented, focusing on the role each participant can play in finding and implementing solutions. Attendance is by invitation only and limited to a select group of distinguished and dedicated global leaders, including current and former heads of state, top business executives, noteworthy academicians, and key NGO representatives. Based upon your impressive record of accomplishment, I consider your participation to be essential to our success.

I would be deeply honored if you would reserve time in your schedule to attend. Please designate a member of your staff to RSVP to my foreign policy adviser, Eric Nonacs. He can be reached via e-mail at enonacs@clintonfoundation.org or by phone at +1.212.348.5684 and can also answer any immediate questions you may have.

We each have an unprecedented amount of power to solve problems and save lives. Working together, we can accomplish even more. I hope you will be able to join me in September.

Sincerely,

2069 02
