A high-contrast, minimalist graphic design. The background is a solid, vibrant red. In the center is a white silhouette of a person with their arms raised in a gesture of triumph or protest. The person's head is a simple circle with two small vertical ovals for eyes and a larger vertical oval for a mouth, giving it a surprised or shouting expression. A wide, white banner stretches across the person's chest, with the word "IGUALDAD" written in bold, red, sans-serif capital letters. On the left side of the person's torso, the year "1968" is written vertically in the same bold, red, sans-serif capital letters. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century political posters.
